YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS OF THE 46th CONGRESS.

The House Meets for Debate Only—Pelton Speaks—All That Congress Did.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 20.—The House met to-day for debate only on the funding bill and immediately went into committee of the whole, Covert, of New York, in the chair.

On that bill Pelton, of Georgia, spoke in favor of a substitute which he proposed to offer for the bill and which requires the Secretary of the Treasury to redeem any United States bonds which may become redeemable during 1880 and 1881, to the amount of the gold and silver coin now in the treasury which may be in excess of 25 per centum of the outstanding United States notes, using said excess of gold and silver coin for redemption of said bonds. Section 2 requires the Secretary six months after the above mentioned amount of bonds are redeemed, and semi-annually thereafter, to redeem the remaining bonds to the amount of gold and silver coin which may be in the treasury at the time in excess of 25 per centum of outstanding United States notes. Section 3 requires the Secretary to purchase silber bullion to the amount four million dollars per month with lawful money of the United States, provided said bullion can be purchased at par and requires him to have the bullion so purchased coined into standard dollars, as now provided by law. Section 4 forbids and prohibits the Secretary from issuing hereafter any interest bearing bonds for the purpose of funding or refunding the National debt or any part thereof.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Mr. Felton expressed himself as opposed to every from of interest bearing debt. The debate was continued by Messrs. Frys, Kelly, Mills, Dunnell and Sanford and at 4:30 o'clock the House adjourned.

WAGES ADVANCED.

NEW YORK, March 20.—The strike at Hennan's furniture factories over the wages of the men has been settled by materially advancing wages.

STRIKERS GOING TO WORK.

NEW YORK, March 20,—The uncond - tional promise by Haines Bros., to reopen the factory on Monday to restore the men to their places has created considerable excitement among the piano makers this morning. The Executive Committee look upon this as certain indications that all the other manufacturers will follow the example in a few days, thus virtually ending the lock out. Three men returned to work in Sohmers' factory this morning induced them to desert their places by their locked out brethren. J. & C. Fisher told the men they could return to work on Monday if they renounced the union, but they refused. A communication was received from St. Louis to day offering assistance from all the trades of that city if needed.

BOAT RACE POSTPONED.

LONDON, March 20.—The University boat race has been postponed until 1:30 Monday morning, on account of the fog that prevailed at the time set for the race this morning. A great crowd had gathered on along the river to witness the expected contest.

KENTUCKY REGULATORS.

CINCINNATI, March 20.—A Grayson county, (Kentucky) dispatch says: A party of one hundred regulators rode to James Bincen's house, on Upper Big Sinking creek Thursday night and asked for John Boggs, a notorious character who was concealed about the house. Bincen refused to open the door and commenced a fusilade on the regulators, firing fifty shots, killing, it is believed, one of them. The regulators, who had come only to notify Boog to leave the county, then broke down the doors and fired three shots at Bincen, who was instantly killed. Mrs. Bencen's right leg was broken. The regulators then took Boggs out and hanged him to a tree and fired two shots into his body.

FIRE RECORD.

TROY, N. Y., March 20.—A building belonging to Adolph Hennann, occupied by George B. Clutt, Stellheimer & Co., shirt and collar manufacturers, and Herman Auckman & Co., felt shirt manufacturers, was destroyed by fire to-day. The loss on the building is $40,000; insurance $50,000. Clutt, Bro. & Co., lose $150,000; insured for $1,00,-000. The loss of J. Stellheimer & Co. is $20,000. The insurance companies lose $75,000.

Foreign News.

MADRID, March 20.—The Jew of Morocco, desiring to recognize the services rendered them by the United States minister who claimed for them protection of the Sultan against the ill treatment, propose to organize a manifestation in his honor in token of their gratitude.

PARIS, March 20.—The Temps says: According to letters from St. Petersburg Prince Orloff's resolution to resign his ambassadorship is final and he will present his letters of recall immediately after his return to Paris. He will be replaced by General Ignatieff or Prince Labonoff. Orloff does not intend leaving Paris where he possesses property, but will for the present withdraw from a diplomatic career.

There is Hope.

Boston Herald.

Don't get excited; the country is not going to the devil right away. It has stood a good deal of nonsense in the past, and it will stand a good deal more. If General Grant should be our next President, the Republic will live—he will not declare himself dictator. If Tilden should make the white house into a national whispering gallery, there would still be hope.

Ex-Governor Tilden, it is beginning to be suspected, is not running for President in Pennsylvania.

Railroad Matters.

CINCINNATI, March 20.—At the Chamber of Commerce to-day the representatives from Knoxville, Tennessee, had the floor to urge the necessity of Cincinnati furnishing aid toward the completion of the connection with Knoxville over what is known as the Emery Gap Railroad. It was urged in its behalf that by the construction of forty miles of the road, Cincinnati could shorten the distance to Knoxville and to the sea via Charleston 152 miles. Addresses were made by Colonel Condon, C. W. Charlton and others. E. W. Cole, of the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad was on change and he stopped here by invitation while on his way from the East.

Hon. Thomas Ruffin, of Hillsboro, is in the City. If any gentleman doubts whether in drawing the redraft of Mr. Bests' proposition to buy and complete the W. N. C. R. R. he acted as a "paid attorney" or as an unbought North Carolinian anxious for the good of the State, perhaps the doubting gentleman can upon inquiry have his doubt removed.

THE REWARD OF INVESTIGATION.

Pat, fill'd with natal pride and vim,
Vow'd, the gem trick he sure would win;
And hast'ning home at close of day,
His spouse he greeted in this way:

Biddy, love, will ye hand me the box thrick?"
Answering, said she, "It's the child er's plaything!"
Pat in retort, squalled, "hand me the box quick!"
The d-me simply sighed, "as ye likes, Squire King."

"Pass me the thrick box, ye sausp spal-spleen!
The puzzle's a game for the man of strong mind!
By the help of St. Patrick, I'll bate the 14—
Hand me the thrick box, woman, so blind!"

"And it's the thrick box ye'll have, stupid old dunce!
With 13 and 14 and figgers all in ip—
You've push'd 'em for days and never a once,
Could ye fix the 14 so's to win it."

Pat smiled and filled afresh his pipe—
Upon his knees the treach'rous box he placed—
And so, for hours, he puff'd and spat that night,
As 'round the box the 14 slow he chased.

Biddy, for lo! six hours, more or less,
Lay quietly sleeping in her downy nest—
When suddenly—"confusion worst confounded"—

In disabils from her couch she bounded,
And in a rage, this tigress in her jungle,
Upset the chair that held the midnight fumblee.

And now the war began—
First Biddy and then the man—
Here the 14 lay—
The 13 gone astray—
The trick box smashed!
The skiliet high in air
His head ne'er spared!
And thus the problem told
What can't be did
Ye better ne'er unfold.

C. BET.

Tilden and the South.

Washington Correspondence N. Y. Herald.

What made Mr. Tilden weak in the South in 1877 makes him even weaker now, for not only has he the same policy, then so distasteful to the South-western Democrats, but they know that he knows that their lukewarmness caused his failure, and they know that he is not a man who forgets. Moreover, it must be added that respectable Southern Democrats abhor his political and financial methods. The revelations of the Potter Committee fill them with disgust. The income tax suits the railroad speculations, the recent return by Mr. Tilden of a large sum of money which he had taken from a railroad—all these things make him, in their eyes, an unfit man for the Presidency. It is not extravagant, therefore, to say that his nomination will just as certainly lead to a bolt in four or five Southern States as it will lead to a bolt in New York. What will these South-western Democrats do? Well a good many of them say they will vote for any Republican candidate rather than Tilden. ..... Mr. Blaine, in spite of his strong, stalwart record, would carry several of the Southern States against him. ..... Mr. Tilden, report here says, has made up his mind to do without a solid South, and holds that the Democrats can carry Northern States enough to make up the deficiency.

Grant and Sherman.

Boston Transcript

There is a good deal of Pecksniffian comment upon Secretary Sherman's candidacy. But the fact still remains that the secretary is the only Republican aspirant who fights the third-term movement courageously and above board. Take Sherman out of the problem and Grant would carry all of the Southern States and be nominated by almost a two-thirds vote in the Republican National convention.

Uncle Tilden's Danger.

Cincinnati Enquirer.

Now that Mrs. Hicks-Lord indignanly denies that she has designs on the virgin affections of Charles O'Connor, it will be well for Uncle Tilden to keep the door of 15 Gramercy Park padlocked and bolted, and admit no one but the butcher's boy and the grocer's clerk at the postern gate. The very next thing that happens to Uncle T. may be a ridiculous story that Mrs. H. L. has or is about to abduct him.

An Inquiry.

Sparta Ishmaelite.

It behooves Democratic Congressmen to explain to their constituents why it is that monopolies so successfully resist every effort for placing on the free list the commonest necessaries of life. If they have been convinced by the specious arguments of the protectionists, then they are no longer true to Democratic faith; if they have not been convinced, are they simply recreant to the duty they owe their constituents, or have they accepted "retainers" from these monopolists?

Hon. Z B. Vance is in the City. If any gentleman doubts whether in his advocacy of the Best proposition he is acting as a "paid attorney," and not as an unbought North Carolinian anxious for the good of his native State, such doubter may probably have his doubt removed on enquiry.

Judicious Advertising.

New York Tribune.

Nothing is so useful and so truly economical as a well-devised advertisement; nothing is so utterly useless and wasteful as an advertisement that is not well devised. Wise business men know that there is no time when judicious advertising is so certain to be productive as that when prosperity is reviving, and the market is taking an upward turn; and judicious advertising, in the opinion of the shrewdest of them, consists in the use of the best newspapers.

Bad for the Boomers.

Philadelphia Times.

Information from Washington is to the effect that President Hayes has come out for a third term for Grant. The Grant people have been trying to keep the matter quiet, but it has finally leaked out, and they will have to struggle along with the burden as well as they can.

And If Not, Why Not?

Buffalo Express.

Why could not the vice-President be made a member of the cabinet, and have authority to run things when the President is attending county fairs, or is for other reasons absent from the seat of government?

Too Far West.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE.

A message from the Senate was here read, asking concurrence in S B No. 22 (put upon the calendar); also S B No. 12, in reference to the raising of revenue [chapter 23, acts 1879]. Calendar.

S B No. 26, H B No. 6, in relation to the construction of a bridge in Jackson county, was amended by the Senate.

The House accepted the amendment, and the Message ordered to be sent to that body announcing the House's concurrence.

Here the morning hour expired, and the calendar was taken up.

House Resolution No. 12, in relation to the payment of the reward of the captors of Bob Pharr, was taken up and put upon its third reading; passed and ordered to be enrolled for ratification.

H R No. 14, in relation to the Keeper of the Capitol's office carpet, was next taken up and passed its several readings; ordered to be engrossed and sent to Senate. [This resolution was amended upon its third reading making the limit $20 for the expenditure.]

Lockhart moved to reconsider the vote on H B No. 56, passed yesterday, which was done.

He then offered an amendment, and the bill was again put upon its third reading and passed; ordered to be engrossed and sent to Senate.

Turner—A protest against meeting at 12 instead of at 10 o'clock. Protest entered upon the journal.

H R No. 10, for the relief of Noah Rice, who killed an outlaw; was shot himself and had not received the reward offered by the Governor; passed its second and third readings, ordered to be engrossed and sent to Senate.

H R No 11, for the relief of Tisdale Walton, an ex-Confederate soldier of Buncombe county, who had gone blind from wounds received in service. Resolution was read three times; ordered to be engrossed and sent to Senate.

H R No. 15—To amend the report of the committee on the Treasurer of the University. Passed its third reading, and was sent to the Senate for concurrence.

Upon motion of Mr. Davis, of Haywood, Judge Gudger was invited to a seat upon the floor of the House.

THE TURNER CHARGES.

House Resolution No. 13 was next called up. This is the resolution offered by Mr. Norment, to inquire into the charges made by Mr. Josiah Turner against numerous and sundry public officers and prominent men.

The question recurring upon the adoption of the resolution, Mr. Jones, of Caldwell, noticed the absence of the introducer, Mr. Norment, and moved a postponement.

Turner opposed the postponement, and wanted both doorkeepers sent after Norment.

Jones then withdrew his motion, and proceeded to speak to the resolution and the charges made by Turner.

He wanted to know what benefit could come of the adoption of the resolution? What, if the charges were true, or what, if they were untrue, could a committee appointed under these resolutions do? How could they investigate the dead, and how, if you could investigate them, could you reach them with a criminal prosecution? He thought it was a deplorable sight that a man should get up here and malign and abuse North Carolina's most honored and prominent sons! Mr. Jones made other remarks upon the subject. He wanted Mr. Norment to put something tangible before the committee, if one were to be appointed, so that the committee could act, etc., etc.

Mr. Turner answered Mr. Jones a length, and corrected a typographical error which read "Judge Pearson," when it was another Judge he alluded to.

Mr. Atkinson spoke to the subject. He wanted the name of the lamented Plato Durham stricken out wherever it occurred in the charges.

Mr. Atkinson said that he would be one of the last men in the State to oppose any investigation of public men or affairs either at the present time, or in the past; but the resolution contained imputations against one who had long since passed to a land beyond investigations and as a friend of Plato Durham—a man who had made a name and established a character above reproach—he would feel himself untrue to every impulse of his heart did he not here denounce any and every imputation that might be made against his character, let the charges be made by whomsoever they might. The gallant and noble fight that he had made for North Carolina and her honor, in the dark days of the past, had enshrined him in the hearts of the people of the entire State, and established his character as a pillar of honor, and the shaft of slander and defamation could never move it or efface it! If Pickrell and all his his crew were to swear till they were as black as hell that Plato Durham ever took a bribe, North Carolinians would never believe it!!

MR. COOKE'S SPEECH.

Mr. Cook, in speaking to the resolution and the charges, said he should not say anything if he thought it was the pleasure of the House to investigate the charges. He condemned this unmanly attack to injure the character and memory of living and dead honored men. He wanted to speak in regard to the charges especially as they affected the Governor of his State. He said he had been requested by Governor Jarvis to explain the Pickrell matter—having heard that he had been attacked on the subject—the allegation being that he (Jarvis) had borrowed $2,000, on "straw bond," of Pickrell. He said the Governor had informed him that in 1865 or '66 he (the Governor) became security for the payment of an obligation of a friend; that in 1869 or 1870 that friend died, and it devolved upon him, as security for his deceased friend, to make good the obligation. Captain Jarvis (now Governor Jarvis,) knowing that he had this money to pay, and, in casting around for a way to raise the amount, remembered that a friend of his (Col. Whitford) was in New York. He therefore wrote to Col. W., asking him if he could not borrow the amount from certain bankers there—bankers in no way connected with North Carolina, her interest or affairs. When Col. W. received the letter he was in the company of Mr. Pickrell, and remarked to that gentleman that he had just received a letter from Capt. Jarvis requesting him to go to said bank and borrow some money for him. Mr. Pickrell inquired what amount, and upon being told it was $1,500, remarked that it was no use to go to that trouble—that he had the amount, for which he had no immediate use, and would loan it himself, and thereupon wrote out a check for $1,500. When the Governor received the check it was the first knowledge or intimation that he had ever had of Mr. Pickrell's loaning it.

Mr. Whitford has the letter alluded to now in his possession.

MR. MORING'S REMARKS.

Mr. Moring (Mr. Richardson of Columbus, in the chair) addressed a few remarks upon the subject. He invited the strictest scrutiny of his actions and would welcome the most through of investigations. He did not desire to say anything upon the subject—did not mind the charges and slanders of Mr. Turner upon the hustings; but when he made such sweeping declarations and wholesale charges of bribery before the assembled representatives of the people, he thought it was high time the matter was investigated.

McCorkle, Burroughs, and numerous others spoke on the subject.

Cobb, of Lincoln, also spoke to the subject and defended the name of Plato Durham.

Clarke spoke in behalf of Mr. Norment, who, it had been ascertained had been called home by a telegram. Mr. Clarke moved, in consideration of Mr. Norment (the introducer of the bill) that farther action on the resolutions be postponed until Monday at 12 o'clock. This motion was afterwards carried and here the matter dropped for the present.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

A message from His Excellency, the Governor, was here received asking that an appropriation of $2000,00 be made to place North Carolina in her proper rank at the King's Mountain celebration. The message was, on motion of Mr. Cobb, transmitted to the Senate.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE.

A message from the Senate was next received announcing the passage of Senate Bill No. 42, to incorporate the Granville Railroad, and asked the concurrence of the House.

The calendar was resumed and H. B. 22, was put upon its second reading. (This is the bill to incorporate the town of Middleburg, Warren county). The committee on Corporations, to which it had been referred, reported it back with an amendment. The amendment was adopted and the bill then passed its second and third readings.

Woodhouse, on the committee on Engrossed Bills here announced the proper engrossment of House Bill 56, providing for the changing of the time for holding of courts in the 4th Judicial District.

The bill in relation to the keeping of public roads in repair, was taken from the calendar next and put upon its second reading.

(The law as it stands requires young men at Colleges to either work the road of the countyin which the college is situated, or pay as other people, $1 per day or furnish a hand in their stead. This bill proposes to abolish this section and make them liable only in the county in which they live.—Reporter.)

Jones, of Caldwell, spoke to the subject favoring the passage of the bill.

Turner thought the whole road system was wrong.

Dinsdale here made an eloquent oration upon the subject. He received the uprorous applause and was afterwards congratulated by his numerons friends.

A general discussion next took place and the bill was finally tabled by a vote of 40 to 56.

House Bill No. 3, to incorporate the Durham Railroad, was next taken up.

Moring spoke and favored the passage of the bill, Mr. Richadson, of Columbus, occupying the chair.

The bill afterwards passed its second and third readings; was ordered to be engrossed and sent to the Senate for concurrence.

MESSAGE FROM THE SRNATE.

A message from the Senate was here received informing the House of the passage of Senate Bill 20, directing the Board of Education of Halifax county to pay outstanding claims of public teachers. Put upon the calendar.

Also Senate Bill No. 23, to protect crops in Rowan county. Put upon the calendar.

Also Senate Bill No 37, in regard to the holding of the Superior Courts of Beaufort and Martin. Calendar.

Cobb called up a bill, by consent, from the calendar to correct a mistake in dates. It was afterwards replaced in its proper order.

On motion the House adjourned until Monday morning at ten o'clock.

Gen. Grant and the German Vote.

If Gen. Grant is to be nominated at Chicago for a third term of the presidency, his supporters must expect to do without a very considerable portion of the German republican vote. All the accounts from New York, Ohio, Missouri and Illinois, where Germans "most do congregate," concur in stating that they are the least tractable voters in the republican ranks in respect to a third presidential term. Ex-Senator Henderson, in a strong speech made a few days at St. Louis in opposition to the Grant movement, asserted bluntly that Gen. Grant could not get the bulk of the German vote. Carl Schurz is of the same belief, as every one knows. So also is Mr. Hassurek, of Cincinnati. If, then, the German resolution not to support Gen. Grant, if he should be nominated at Chicago, be firmly maintained, and the independent republicans refuse to vote for him as they now declare they will, his chance of election will be greatly weakened thereby, but his positive defeat would still depend upon the ability of the democracy to compose their quarrels and work together in unity for the nominee to be chosen at Cincinnati.

Grant's programme now is to enter the country at Galveston and fill the negroes of the south with inspiration. The time has arrived for bagging the delegates of the non-counting states.

STATE PRESS OPINIONS!

ACCEPT THE PROPOSITION, AND SELL THE ROAD.

East and West and North and South—The Papers Advocate the Sale of the W. N. C. Railroad.

After quoting the main features of Mr. Dortch's bill, the Warrenton Gazette says: "We are surprised to see a bill like this, emanating from a gentleman so clear-headed as Mr. Dortch. It is wanting in definite aim and method. Would he empower the President and Directors to sell the road, or lease it for years, or issue mortgage bonds? He would give them unlimited discretion in the matter of raising the wind. He would allow them to do the very thing which he charges upon the scheme of selling the road. His bill would authorize the President and Directors to purchase iron and rolling stock at the price of turning the road over to the Cincinnati Southern, the Louisville and Nashville, to the Baltimore and Ohio, or any other company. Tom Scott has already control of two roads in the State, and would doubtless jump at the opportunity of securing the Paint Rock road. The Baltimore and Ohio is extending her Briarean arms about us, and would gladly clutch the prize. Unless Mr. Dortch can suggest a better scheme than this, he is not likely to succeed in defeating the sale. His plan ignores Ducktown entirely."

The Franklin Times compliments the able argument of C. M. Cooke, Esq., and adds: "We are very sorry to see that the members are dabbling into matters which do not pertain to the subject for which they were called together. Do up the Railroad and bid the Capitol adieu."

The Border Review says: "First, as to the proposed sale: There are several good and valuable considerations therefor; sufficiently good and valuable, nothing to the contrary appearing. It is an apple of discord in the Democratic party, and if practicable should be removed—got rid of. It is a part of a heavy burden upon the tax-payers of the State who, by their legislature, have been unloading other portions of that burden with but scant regard to the rights or pleasures of anybody but themselves. Here is an opportunity to unload pretty heavily, to the manifest diminution of the public debt, the lightening of the public tax, and the utmost regard and protection to the rights and interests of the public credit. The building of the road is matter of promise, and so binds the honor and conscience of long standing from the people of the middle and east of both parties, to the people of the west of both parties. If possible the promise must be redeemed—if possible in more ways than one. We have our choice of ways, but if possible in only one way we have no choice, but must redeem it in that one only way. Is it possible for the State to build the road? Perhaps, but at all events, not without great public discontent, wrangling and dissension. And in that discontent, wrangling and dissension lies danger to the Commonwealth—a danger to be avoided if practicable.

As to the terms and conditions of the sale, if the sale be made, we say nothing here, simply for want of space for a proper and satisfactory discussion of the subject, save only that the consideration should be adequate, and the guarantees ample and effectual. That we may, with reasonable confidence, we think, commit to the people's representatives."

The Charlotte Observer, after expressing the opinion that the Western N. C. Railroad will be sold to the Best Syndicate, says: "The next thing to be considered is what will this New York Syndicate to do with the road. They cannot move it, and it is therefore plain that they must run it. They see that the State cannot run it in its present condition, at a profit, and therefore they must finish it to its termini. We take it for granted that this is the course to be adopted. Any other would be suicidal on the part of the purchasers. This means that within a given time the line to Paint Rock, as well as the other line to Ducktown, is to be completed. What then? Are we to understand that these two lines are to be run independent of any other line; to butt up against Paint Rock and Ducktown on the one hand and Salisbury on the other? Not much. These are not the days for independent lines. Consolidation and co-operation are the order of the day. Rival lines compel the closest connections and the cheapest freight, and we think we may take it for granted that the Best syndicate already contemplate alliances offensive and defensive. Already plans are being made which shall induce Eastern bound freight from the great West to seek an outlet over the trunk line which the Western North Carolina Railroad will be when finished, and that freight or passenger travel cannot bank up in Salisbury, the present Eastern terminus.

And after discussing the different connections which have been suggested, to wit, with the Richmond & Danville and with the Virginia Midland, concludes that neither is probable, but that the road will be run in connection with the Seaboard Air-Line, the Raleigh & Gaston and Augusta Air-Line, and thence westward as a part of the Great Southern Pacific route. The article thus concludes:

"Open and accessible at all seasons of the year, one of the shortest routes across the continent, we believe this to be one of the grandest schemes ever conceived. Its magnitude, its importance and the perfect details of the plan are self-evident. We do not say this is Mr. Best's plan, but if it is not it ought to be. We scout the idea of an alliance with the Richmond & Danville Railroad, because that is a rival line and can never be anything else, unless the Western North Carolina Railroad is to be allowed to stop just where it is; but the moment it becomes a through line its outlet must be the Atlantic coast, and the natural direction will be Norfolk, Va."

Concord Register.

On the publication of the original bill, we said that the general scheme of the proposition was acceptable to us, but that the bill needed amendments. The present bill seems to meet all the objections we had to the language of the former.

Newbernian.

We congratulate the Governor upon the wisdom, which influenced him in selecting the Hon. Geo. Davis of Wilmington, and the Hon. Thomas Ruffin of Hillsboro, to review the "Best proposition," and throw around it additional safeguards and guarantees in protection of the State's interests. We again commend to our readers a careful perusal of the Governor's message.

Mr. Dortch's railroad speech reminds us very forcibly of one of Jules Verne's novels.—Elizabeth City Falcon.

The Statesville Landmark interviews Col. Armfield, who has this to say of Mr. Best:

Col. Armfield has seen a good deal at different times of Syndicate Best. This gentleman has impressed him favorably—as a frank, candid man. Best was born in the north of Ireland; he is a Scotch-Irishman, a blue-stocking Presbyterian, and has big, round, honest-looking eyes. He says he wants the Western North Carolina Railroad and if he gets it intends to build it, not because he loves North Carolina especially, but because he hopes to make some money out of it. He hopes the Virginia Midland will not build across from Danville into North Carolina because if he gets the Western road he wants to build that link himself.

A correspondent of the Chapel Hill Ledger says: The sale of our Western North Carolina Railroad, which our honorable Legislature has been called together to consider, has been so ably and clearly set forth by our worthy Governor and Treasurer and Secretary of State, that it seems the Legislature might, without delay, arrive at satisfactory conclusions, and agree to sell the road on the terms proposed, without fear of the displeasure of their constituents. But I fear Buncombe will be so fully represented in that body in connection with rings (and Brother Turner may fill the blank,) that the interest of the dear people will be lost sight of, and party ends and personal motives be, to too great an extent, the ruling passion of the day.

THE Statesville Landmark: In a report to the Governor, President Wilson, of the Western North Carolina Railroad, asserts that $220,000 would be necessary to put the road in good condition between Salisbury and the Blue Ridge. Suppose the road should not be sold, how are these means to be raised? The road can't earn the money it can't even pay its actual running expenses. Shall the State rebuild it from Salisbury to Swannanoa and re-equip it? It would be well for the opponents of the sale to answer these questions before they finally conclude to break with Best.

THE Elizabeth City Falcon in its leading editorial strongly favors the sale. We give extracts as follows:

"How many thousands and tens of thousands of men have thus amassed theoretical fortunes, and when we consider the number that have really and in fact succeeded, they can almost be counted on the fingers of one hand. We should bear this in mind when we read the plausible, well-worded theories of Colonel McRae, Mr. Dortch and others. Our people have a very sensible way of observing the lessons of the past and profiting by them. They remember when this Western North Carolina Railroad was first agitated—years ago—what great promises were made for it. They distinctly recollect that it was to have been completed long before this; that our towns were to be built up in magnificent cities; our people to be enriched; the Old North State to enter upon a career of unprecedented prosperity,—in fact, there was nothing to do but to make appropriations for the building of this railroad and the cornicopia would pour forth a continual glittering stream over the length and breadth of North Carolina. The picture was finely tinted, beautiful, fascinating. But as the years rolled on, one by one the colors faded and today there remains but a sickening daub.

"The North Carolina system is but a fond recollection."

Year after year taxes have been ground from our people for the construction of the Western North Carolina Railroad and to-day little more than one-third of the road has been built, and that is in a state of dilapidation. The engines and other rolling stock have become dilapidated from constant use, the cross-ties in many places are absolutely rotten and unsafe and the iron rusted and worn completely out. Then what is to be done? Proceed with the road and continue the taxation? The people say, "No," and they have a very emphatic way of saying it in such cases. Shall we follow Mr. Dortch and build the road by mortgaging it? The present generation would not live to see the road completed by this plan, and besides, who would have to pay the interest on these mortgage bonds? Certainly, the people, and that they will not do. Then there remains but two alternatives:

1. Let the road remain as it is and go to ruin—it cannot last more than three years at most without further appropriation—and continue to pay their interest on the $850,000 of mortgage bonds now out, from the State treasury; or,

2. Sell the road on the best terms possible, and let our people reap the benefits of $8,000,000 foreign capital invested in our State.

Our people chosse the latter.

Asheville Citizen.

We are sorry to see that the majority of the opposition that has been made to the sale of the W. N. C. Railroad has shown more or less bitterness of spirit—some of our Eastern contemporaries have let their zeal run away with their usual prudence and that charity towards men and measures which should characterize all journalists. This question involves much that is of interest to the people of the whole State, but more especially is it of interest to those of this section of the State—and while we are glad the matter has been so thoroughly discussed before the assembling of the Legislature, yet we have failed to see any occasion for the abuse of those who may have favored the sale of the road to Mr. Best at the beginning of the discussion or who may have since become convinced of the great advantages to the State of such a sale; and we are glad to know that this spirit has been exhibited only by the opposition.

We believe the Legislature will sell the road to Mr. Best, although there may and doubtless should be amendments made to the proposition as originally made; and we believe that in doing so the best interests of North Carolina will have been subserved thereby. But yet let those entertaining different views give us, and the large majority who think with us, credit for the same honesty of purpose which we accord them in opposing the measure.

A letter from Raleigh, dated Monday evening, gives the following additional information:

"An effort is being made by Tom Keogh, Lot Humphrey and others of the Republican party, to organize the Republicans in opposition to the measure, but so far such a move looks to be a failure. Humphrey & Co. have brought a man named Fitch, from Baltimore, who says if the State will wait, he has a company that will buy all the roads of the State, but he has not had the time to complete the arrangements. All this is only for delay and defeat. Anything like looking to the defeat of the sale will not be tolerated by the Assembly. If the bill is framed so as to protect the State and assure the completion of the road, it will pass the Assembly, I am very sure, by an overwhelming vote."

GEO. C JORDAN, Editor and Propr

STRIPPING FOR THE FIGHT.

The contest for State and National offices in North Carolina during the present year will be no child's play. The Democrats of the General Assembly cannot afford to take doubtful chances, or to send the party into the canvass encumbered with a deficit in the treasury. Much less can it afford to send out the words "Increased taxation" as a rallying cry.

Believing that the unity and the success of the Democratic party is essential to the welfare of the State, in all earnestness we ask a plain question.

If you do not sell the W. N. C. R. R. what do yon propose to do:

Look the facts and figures plainly in the face—there can be no dodging them.

Treasurer Worth reports that the fund in the treasury and the estimated receipts for the year 1880 amounts to $243,099. The appropriation for the same time, including the $70,000 for the W. N. C. Railroad and the $50,000 for the C. F. & Y. V. railroad, exceed the estimated receipts by $216,675. But if we stop the railroad at its present terminus and fail to pay the amount appropriated to the C. F. & Y. V. Railroad, the deficiency will still amount to $96,675. Two directors of the Penitentiary stated on yesterday that they could see no prospect whatever of employment for their convicts which would materially reduce the $75,000 necessary for the support of the institution; the $59,000 of interest cannot be shirked or avoided. So that if every appropriation is repealed that can be repealed, we will fall $96,675 behind. In what condition will we leave the W. N. C. railroad? President Wilson's report shows an immediate need of over $100,000 (not including any part of the twenty miles of new iron almost indispensable) and only $22,177 a year to pay it—less than the floating debt.

Shall we dare to go into the canvass with a balance sheet like this inscribed upon our platform? An empty treasury; an unfinished railroad.

But shall we boldly determine to levy increased taxes to an extent sufficient to meet the deficiency, and go on with the work upon the railroad? Can a majority of the General Assembly be found to vote for any such increase; and if such majority could be secured, would it be wise to enter upon the thirty years task of completing the railroad with the present appropriation. We think that this plan meets with no favor. But shall we let the deficit alone, and try to complete the railroad to Paint Rock by mortgaging it? The objections to this plan are, in the first place, it is a deliberate abandonment of the plighted faith of the party to attempt to build the road to Ducktown, and, secondly, that if such a mortgage shall be made, it is absolutely certain that the bondholders would eventually own the road by a foreclosure, and leave the State without any return for its money and labor expended.

But if we can sell the railroad upon such terms as to provide for the payment of all the State's outstanding obligations, reduce the estimated expenses by $62,500 for the support of convicts and $59,500 for interest, and thereby prevent the deficit of $96,000; secure guaranties for the immediate completion of the railroad to Paint Rock and its completion to Ducktown by January, 1885, and receive besides $550,000 in bonds, can any sane man doubt that it is for the interest of the State, the taxpayer and the Democratic party to make the sale?

JUDGE MERRIMON ON RAILROADS

The most remarkable portion of the remarkable speech of Judge Merrimon on Wednesday night was the effort made to alarm the members of the General Assembly by a supposed lien of bond-holders upon the State's present interest in the W. N. C. R. R. The bond-holders, with whom Mr. Merrimon says his firm has been in very recent correspondence, claim that their construction bonds are a lien upon the State's stock, and Judge Merrimon seems to be by no means disposed to deny their claim.

Even if the eminent law firm of which Mr. Merrimon is a member, as yet hesitates to bring an action, if prominent legal gentlemen assure these bondholders that they have a valid lien, it is certain that some lawyers can be found in North Carolina who will bring the suit.

Now it is certain that the stock in the railroad for which these bonds were issued was subject to the lien—but that stock is not in existence, or at least is utterly valueless. The creditors of the road, whose claims were paramount to all others, brought suit, a foreclosure was decreed and a sale ordered. That sale purported to convey a clear title, and Judge Merrimon had sufficient faith in the title to buy the road himself. Nay more, after the State to his great relief took the railroad off his hands, we understand he advised certain clients to accept the bonds, of whose validity he now has serious doubts in payment of their claim. Has the Judge forgotten his anxiety during the few mortal hours when he was the real owner of the Railroad, and is it in consideration of Mr. Best's feelings that he don't want him to own the Railroad?

But the State took pity on his agony, came to his relief, and took the road off his hands, paying for it not with the old construction bonds, but with new mortgage bonds upon which the State guarantied the interest. Will Judge Merrimon risk his legal reputation upon the opinion that the construction bonds are or can be a lien upon the State's present interest? If he will risk that opinion now, should his clients rely upon that opinion or the one given at the time of the sale?

But suppose he is right this time—the purchasers, who have full notice of the claim (for Judge Merrimon has given it to them) have so little fear of this lien that they are willing to risk it. When you are about to sell your house, will the discovery of a supposed mortgage upon it, which the purchaser does not object to, cause you to fly from the trade?

But let us follow the Judge a step farther. The title of the State is subject to a lien says Mr. Merrimon, and therefore let us go on and complete the Railroad. "A popular impression," prevails he says, that the taxes are burdensome. We infer that Mr. Merrimon does not fall in with this popular impression, and we certainly can not go on without increased taxation. Then Mr. Merrimon's argument amounts to this: that the State shall devote her money and her labor to the completion of this great work, and when the fruit is ripe, the clients of Judge Merrimon, the construction bond-holders, will come in and grasp the prize.

"Do not sell the road," says Mr. Merrimon, "because there is this lien upon it; go on and build it."

Must we then toil, and sweat, and pay taxes, only to be told by Judge Merrimon's bondholder clients when the right time comes: "Thank you; we'll take it now."

This is no fancy sketch. The gentleman is of counsel for the holders of the construction bonds of the Western North Carolina Railroad, who now in effect own the State's interest in that railroad. If he is right in his law, his correspondents have the same lieu on the railroad he now asks the State to build.

Perhaps the Court will allow in this new action the $60,000 in fees asked for by counsel (in addition to the $27,000 which was actually paid them) in the Swasey case, which even Judge Bond could not quite stand.

We do not object to Judge Merrimon's being of counsel either for the North Carolina Railroad or for the Western North Carolina Railroad. It is his righ', and if he accepts a retainer, his duty. But we do object, and that most strenuously, to his asking the Legislature to go and build the road for his clients to gobble up.

MR. NORMENT'S RESOLUTION.

It is rather a work of supererogatio to explode the windy charges which Mr. Turner amuses himself by daily making against every prominent citizen of North Carolina. Still, it is well enough to prick the bubble sometimes, as was effectually done in the House of Representatives on yesterday, as will be seen in the proceedings. Let the matter be investigated ever so much, and the charges found to be totally unfounded, it will not prevent Mr. Turner from repeating them the next day, and including the investigating committee in his next denunciation.

A NOT. OF WARNING.

When we penned the words of our declaration published on yesterday morning, that Col. L. W. Humphrey liked nothing so well per se as to fight Democracy, we could hardly have hoped for such a striking proof of the truth of our assertion as we now are able to lay before our readers. But such is life!

Within the week just closed, as we learn upon the authority of a prominent republican, Col. Humphrey met the aforesaid republican and grasping him cordially by the hand congratulated him upon the bright prospects of their party. "The breach in Democratic ranks, said Col. Humphrey "is daily growing wider and wider, and altogether matters are becoming more and more lovely. Everything is succeeding most admirably, and North Carolina like Virginia will be Mahoned." The prominent Republican then asked who the North Carolina Mahone would be. The answer was promptly given, but we withhold the name of the gentleman mentioned, for well we know that whenever a proposition shall be made to him to play the part in North Carolina that Mahone has played in Virginia, the maker of it will repent his audacity.

The conversation we have detailed above, we are informed upon authority we have no right to discredit, actually took place on the streets of Raleigh within the past three days, and we sincerely hope our Democratic friends in the Legislature, upon whose action the good of our party in the near and distant future so vitally depends, will take due notice and govern themselves accordingly. The effort of Col. Humphey and all who like him, hate Democracy to their hearts' core, will be to sow dissension and discord in our ranks. The fact is, whether we like it or not, the Democratic party will be held responsible for whatever action is taken in regard to this matter of the Western North Carolina Railroad. We have the undoubted power to do as we please in the matter and the people will hold us to the full measure of our responsibility if we abuse that power. The party that has the power to shape legislation cannot possibly escape responsibility for the exercise of that power. We must meet this crisis in our affairs like men, or we and our party must suffer in consequence. We needed no proof, or rather we ought not to have needed any, to satisfy us that no effort would be spared to divide and distract our party by those who seek its destruction, and the recent success of the Mahone policy in Virginia ought to have foreshadowed, even to the most unsuspecting, the means most likely to be resorted to.

But had there been any doubt the declaration of Col. Humphrey has certainly removed it. The only difficulty in his way, and in the way of those who like him are watching and waiting to strike us a mortal blow, is to find the instrument to strike us. Who will be the Mahone of North Carolina, is to them as to us the all important question. We are quite willing to stake our reputation as journalists that the gentleman named by Col. Humphrey would indignantly spurn the position. There may be those, however, upon whose shoulders obligations of party fealty rest more lightly, and to whom a governorship or senatorship may be a temptation too strong to be resisted. We trust not, yet it is possible. If any such there be, we warn them that the paths of Mahoneism in North Carolina, like those of glory, lead but to the grave.

THE antagonism of the Virginia Democracy to Mr. Tilden is evidently of a very solid character.

BLOOD AND SKIN HUMORS,

The Scourge of Mankind. Old Methods of Treatment and Remedies a Failure.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the Great Blood Purifier and Liver Stimulant, is the most searching, cleansing, and purifying agent of this country. It may be detected in the saliva, sweat, milk, blood, and urine in forty minutes after taking the first dose, showing that it has entered the circulation and been carried to every part of the system. It forever eradicates the virus of Syphilis, Scrofula, Cancer, and Canker, those terrible blood poisons that rot out the machinery of life, filling the body with foul corruptions. Taken internally in conjunction with the external application of CUTICURA, the Great Skin Cure, it speedily cures Scrofulous Ulcers and Old Sores, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, Tetter, Ringworm Scald Head, Dandruff, and all itching and Scaly Diseases of the Skin and Scalp.

ECZEMA ON THE SCALP.

BREAST AND LIMBS CURED.

CUTICURA SOAP,

MEDICINAL AN TOILET,

is prepared from CUTICURA in a modified form, and is positively indispensable in the treatment of Skin and Scalp Diseases. We recommend it for the preservation of the skins of infants, for gentlemen who shave and are troubled with tender faces, for those who desire a clean and wholesome Skin and Scalp, and for all purposes of the toilet, bath and nursery. Its delightful and refreshing fragrance equals or surpasses the finest Parisian Soaps.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by WEEKS & POTTER, Chemists and Druggists, 360 Washington street, Boston, and are for sale by all druggists. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes, 50 cents; large box, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 35 cents; three cakes, 75 cents.

THE untold miseries that result from indiscretion in early life may be alleviated and cured. Those who doubt this assertion should purchase the new medical work published by the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, Boston, entitled THE SCIENCE OF LIFE; or SELF-PRESERVATION. Exhausted vitality, nervous and physical debility, or vitality impaired by the errors of youth or too close application to business, may be restored and manhood regained.

Two hundredth edition, revised and enlarged, just published. It is a standard medical work, the best in the English language, written by a physician of great experience, to whom was awarded a gold and jewelled medal by the National Medical Association. It contains beautiful and very expensive engravings. Three hundred pages, more than 50 valuable prescriptions for all forms of prevailing disease, the result of many years of extensive and successful practice, either one of which is worth ten times the price of the book. Bound in French cloth; price only $1, sent by mail post-paid.

The London Lancet says: "No person should be without this valuable book. The author is a noble benefactor."

An illustrated sample sent to all on receipt of 6 cents for postage.

The author refers, by permission, to Jos. S. Fisher, president; W. I. P. Ingraham, vice-president; W. Paine, M. D.; C. S. Gamitt, M. D.; H. J. Doucet, M. D.; R. J. Kline, M. D.; J. R. Holcomb, M. For Sale.

A Rare Chance for Investment.

Wishing to give my whole attention to the lumber trade, in which I am about to engage on a larger scale than ever before, I offer for sale on terms to suit the times the following valuable property in Cary:

I.

MY PLUG TOBACCO FACTORY, in a BRICK building 50x80 feet, 3 stories high, the lower story being two large storerooms. The Tobacco Machinery is new and has a capacity of manufacturing 1,000 lbs. per day. The factory has been worked a year, and a good beginning for a trade has been made. The building and the machinery will be sold together, or separately to suit purchasers.

II.

GRAIN MILLS,

in a 3 story brick building, 28x40 feet. Two Wheat Mills and one Corn Mill, new and complete with a capacity for grinding 100 bushels of wheat and 100 bushels of corn a day, and can compete in quality of flour with any mills in the State. The mills have had a very large local patronage during the past year. They are driven by a 60 HORSE POWER STEAM ENGINE, improved, of the make of Talbott & Sons, Richmond.

Attached to the engine is also a 60 SAW COTTON GIN and power press, at a safe distance (about 100 feet) in a different lot. The engine has a brick smoke-stack 60 feet high, making the danger from fire the least possible and the rate of insurance very low.

III.

Several well built and [illegible] residences, with lots and garden of about one acre to each dwelling. Two [illegible] buildings, 2 stories high, with from 5 to 7 rooms each situated in desirable [illegible] in the village.

Besides these, I own a [illegible] building of 2 rooms.

TERMS: One-third Cash [illegible] reasonable time.

SIDEWALK NOTES.

—Church day.

—Fine weather.

—Churches all open to-day.

—Where is the coming Mahone?

—Judge Gudger is at the Yarboro.

—Who is the North Carolina Mahone?

—Och hone! Och hone! Billy Mahone!

—Where is the new North Carolina Mahone?

—Mr. hiem has lost his youngest child, Jennie.

—Colonel Wharton J. Greene is stopping in the city.

—We noticed President Battle, of the University, on the streets yesterday.

—Mr. Dimsdale made an eloquent address in the House, and was the recipient of many congratulations and "tremendous applause."

—Turner and the resolution to investigate his charges against the prominent men of the State was one of the absorbing topics in the House yesterday.

—Bald-headed persons are recommended, by one who knows how it is himself, to have a spider painted on the top of their heads as a preparation for the fast approaching fly time.

—Union prayer meeting, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association at their room in the Holleman building at 5 o'clock this afternoon. Services 45 minutes. All invited to attend.

—A large number of young ladies, scholars at the schools here and resident ones, were noticeable in the galleries of the two legislative halls yesterday. Phew! did you ever see so many pretty girls? The Legislators seem to like it too.

Died.

Jennie McGee Thiem, youngest daughter of Phil Thiem, Esq. Funeral this afternoon at 4 o'clock from the residence.

Meeting of the Board of Supervisors.

To-morrow at 12 o'clock, at the store of C. D. Heartt, there will be a meeting of the Board of Supervisors of Raleigh Township.

Masonic.

There will be a regular meeting of Wm. G. Hill Lodge, No. 218, to-morrow night at 7½ o'clock. Members of the Legislature and all visiting brethren are invited.

Gov. Jarvis's Vindication.

Read the speech of C. M. Cooke in vindication of Gov. Jarvis in the Pickrell matter, in which Mr. Turner charged him with corruption, to be found in our Legislative report. House.

Baptist Festival.

We understand that the two nights entertainment given under the auspices of the Salisbury Street Baptist Church, realized $750. Pretty good.

Personal.

Mr. Alfred Whitman, of Louisville, Ky., Special Agent for the Traveler's Life and Accident Company, is in the city on business connected with his company.

Convict.

Sidney Mabe was yesterday delivered to the Penitentiary authorities and transferred to work on the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. near Greensboro.

Members at the Osborn House.

The following members are at the Osborn House: Senators R. H. Bryant, Pender; J. A. Bryant, Duplin; A. H. Merritt, Chatham; E. O. Moye, Pitt. Representatives J. C. Hines, Sampson; J. T. Reid, McDowell; T. J. Armstrong, Pender; J. E. Burroughs, Granville; R. B. Davis, Catawba; D. C. Moore, Pitt.

Robbery in Durham.

Mr. J. R. Lawrence, of Durham, while absent in Hillsboro, had his house robbed in the former place night before last. A man, supposed to be a tramp, knocked at the door, and Mrs. Lawrence replied to the call. The villain then knocked her down and ransacked the house, taking what he wanted, including $3 in money, all there was in the house. The scoundrel had not been arrested yesterday afternoon.

"Fools Errand."

A new supply of the third edition of this popular book just received at Alfred Williams & Co's Bookstore. Also another lot of "Myrtle Lawn," by Robert Ballard.

A Dollar Still.

A negro went to the store of Mr. T. D. Sledge and asked to have a dollar changed. He was accommodated, and his money being paper money he was doubtless fearful of tearing it, so he kept his dollar wrapped up, and when the change was handed he laid down the dollar (still wrapped up) and upon opening it was found to be—a dollar, but a Confederate one. The negro had leaked out before the fraud was discovered.

But he Can't be Quiet.

Nashville American.

If Mr. Tilden had nothing on his record worse than the 1861 speech of Mr. Bayard he might rest easy.

Supreme Court.

Court opened at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. All the Justices were present.

The consideration of appeals heretofore set for hearing at the end of the docket was resumed, and causes were disposed of as follows:

McWilliam Young vs J. O. Griffith et als, from Madison; called and continued for absence of counsel.

Thos. L. Clayton vs. R B Johnston, from Buncombe; argued by J H Merrimon (by brief) and Merrimon, Fuller & Fuller for the plaintiff, and J. M. Gudger (by brief) for the defendant.

Joseph Scott et als vs Thos. Elkins et als, from Buncombe; argued by J. M. Gudger (by brief), M. E Carter and Reade, Busbee & Busbee and Charles R. Lewis, for the plaintiffs, and J. H. Merrimon (by brief) and Merrimon, Fuller & Fuller.

Amos L Ray vs William Gadner, from Buncombe; argued by J H Merrimon (by brief) and Merrimon, Fuller & Fuller for the defendant; no counsel for plaintiff.

Nancy Stevens vs Nathan Brown, from Buncombe; argued by T. F. Davidson and Mason & Devereux for the plaintiff, and J H. Merrimon (by brief) and Merrimon, Fuller & Fuller for the defendant.

E Ammons et als vs A. Ammons et als, from Macon; argued by G. S. Ferguson (by brief) and Reade, Busbee & Busbee for plaintiffs, and J H Merrimon (by brief) and Merrimon, Fuller & Fuller for the defendants.

This concluded the argument of appeals for the present term.

Court adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow (Monday) morning.

Hon. George Davis, of Wilmington is in the city. If any gentleman doubts whether in drawing the redraft of Mr. Bests' proposition to buy and complete the W. N. C. R. R. he acted as a "paid attorney" or as an unbought North Carolinian anxious for the good of the State, such doubting gentleman upon inquiry can doubtless have his doubts removed.

Oxford Free Lance.

The bill contains more satisfactory provisions than the original, and makes it certain that the road will either be built or the State will retain the property without any detriment.

Greenville Express.

Some public men who frantically oppose the sale of the Western railroad and the relief of the people from taxation, and the opportunity which Western North Carolina is now offered for an early completion of its railroad and an early development of its resources may yet have to retire into unadvertised life, for all who vote in the present Legislature against the sale of the Elaphantine road against the relief of the East from taxation, against the West from development, will be spotted by the people.

Strawberries in the middle of January; oats heading the first of March; sugar cane growing the entire winter and green pods first of March; corn tasseling in March; pepper plant, exposed, green through the entire winter and green pods first of March; corn tasseling and in silk in February; thermometer 83 degrees first week in March.

Seven Springs Iron and Alum Mass

This most excellent remedy is becoming more popular with our people every day. It is one of the few medicines that improves on acquaintance—the more one knows of it, the more its virtues are appreciated. Everybody who has given it a fair trial, speak well of it. Our druggists sell large quantities of it. People are not afraid to use a medicine that they know to be efficient for their ailments, and at the same time harmless in its nature. Read what is so aptly said of it, in another column of this paper. Truth is mighty and will prevail. feb27 tf

A large variety of Trunks, Valises and Satchels, just opened, selling very cheap, at

HELLER BROS' Shoe Store,

That Awful! Puzzle.

"Can't do it? Oh, yes, sir, I can!
It is the easiest of problems to do,"
Said Jones; and then he began
The putting the black figures through.

One, two, three, four, "I told you so!
Don't you see the numbers come straight?"
The third line complete—so they go.
Thirteen, fifteen, "O! you just wait."

So the moving goes on and on:
All things seem to be in a mix;
The number ten in the place of one,
And fifteen in a very bad fix.

By and by all seems to be fair,
Each piece to its proper place slid;
Thirteen, fourteen, "no, I declare!
Well, I'm certain the thing can't be did!"

Then Jones jumps up in great haste,
And hurriedly claps on his hat—
"My time is too precious to waste
On so foolish a trifle as that!"

O'er the puzzle Brown is bending,
Never once his strained eyes liftin'—
See! He thinks at last he's triumphed:
No! 'tis 14 ——13——15.

Once again he tales the puzzle,
Puzzle that there's fatal "sport" in:
Ha! He's got it now! Not much he Hasn't, 13 ——15——14.

Long he pauses, long he ponders,
Now he thinks he's got it certain.
Moves the figures very slowly—
Pshaw! 'tis 15 ——14——13.

See! his eyes dilate and glisten!
Into madness he is driftin'!
One more victim for the asylum,
Crazed by 13——14——15.

Charles S. Prentice, of Toledo, O., went to Paris and thence to England to be treated for Bright's disease, and after the best physicians of both countries had done what they could for him, gave up in despair and returned to America to die. Here he received further treatment from other skillful physicians without benefit, and while "listlessly lingering in pain and anguish," he says, heard of the Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, took it, and was completely cured in a few weeks. He gives circumstantial details of his painful experience.

Mosley's is the most attractive place to visit in Raleigh. In connection with the confection department, you will find a nice retreat for ladies and gentlemen. A saloon for their special benefit with all the delicacies of the season. A dining saloon. What Raleigh needs and what the good people ought to sustain. You can get oysters served in any style. Birds, Beefsteak, Ham and Eggs, Sausage, Coffee, Ice Cream Cakes, Pies and Milk. All are invited to pay this institution a visit.

The News from Maine.

Hop Bitters, which are advertised in our columns, are a sure cure for ague, billiousness and kidney complaints. Those who use them they cannot be too highly recommended. Those afflicted should give them a fair trial, and will become thereby enthusiastic in the praise of their curative qualities.—Portland Ad.

J. M. Johnston, a gentleman of 10 years experience in repairing and rebuilding sewing machines, can be found at the Tucker House during next week, and orders left there will receive prompt attention. Sewing machines rebuilt and adjusted. Satisfaction guaranteed. *16-1w.
